HOW TO SUBMIT

Work must be submitted online via this prospectus. No CDs or e-mail submissions will be accepted. Follow the online instructions to submit application and images. You will have an opportunity to review your application before you are charged.

SUBMISSION FORMAT

Submit up to 3 items at the Smarter Entry site. (Up to 3 images per item at 72 dpi resolution.)

Artists whose work is selected will be expected to send a hi-res image for inclusion in promotional materials.

All images should have name of work and number.

To avoid confusion: NO WORKS TITLED "UNTITLED" WILL BE ACCEPTED! if you cannot conceive of a name for your work use a descriptive word (not your name) and a number. i.e. YELLOW2 or WOOD25. Make note of the title and price of your pieces and ideally print a copy of your submission for reference if your works are selected.

JUROR – PAULIEN LETHEN

Dutch artist and gallery owner, Paulien Lethen, opened Holland Tunnel Art Newburgh/Gallery and Studios in May of 2018, shortly after she became a resident of Newburgh. Recognizing a lively local art community, she sets out to create a new place for exhibitions, performances, concerts, movie screenings and artist studios. Her goal is to create a cultural venue and art center where art and people can get together. In Newburgh, Lethen feels the same exciting artistic energy of Williamsburg, where she first established Holland Tunnel Gallery in 1997. The Brooklyn gallery gained recognition in the international art world and became a neighborhood icon as a microcosm of local and international talent. It enjoyed a successful run until 2007. Holland Tunnel Gallery Paros, on the island of Paros, Greece opened in 2000 and is still an elegant space for summer concerts, poetry readings, artist talks, and art classes.
