August 17, 2023, Garrison, NY - Garrison Art Center (GAC) is pleased to announce Barely Not Impossible, an exhibition of sculptures and paintings by Visiting Artist David Provan. This is the artist's first solo show at Garrison Art Center. The exhibition will run from September 23 – November 5, 2023. There will be an opening reception on Saturday, September 23, from 5-7 pm.

"I've come to understand that we inhabit a universe that extends far beyond the grasp of our five senses," said Provan. He continues, "These extremes evade us because they are, for the most part, too tiny, too huge, or too glacially slow for us to grasp. Through my studies and ultimately through my art, I've tried to construct objects that model and resonate with that world that lies just beyond our understanding."

David Provan became interested in the concepts of Maya (illusion) and Yab-yum (the union of opposites) while living in Japan, India, and Nepal. These ideas form the core of much of his artwork. He later studied painting and architecture at Yale and Royal College of Art in London. His work has been shown in galleries and museums in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, London, and Korea. He has completed several public art projects, including a permanent sculpture installation for the Herald Square subway station in New York City in 1996.

In addition to the exhibition, David Provan will give an artist talk on Saturday, September 30, 3-4pm, during Garrison Craft. Garrison Craft is an annual Fair taking place September 30 - October 1 at Garrison Art Center. October 21, David will run a free, family workshop, and on October 28, a free, adult workshop, where he will demonstrate how he creates his cardboard sculptures (maquettes) and each participant will have the opportunity to create a maquette of their own.

Barely Not Impossible will be on view in our galleries, September 23 – November 5, 2023. The Galleries at Garrison Art Center are open Tuesday – Saturday, 10 am - 5 pm, and Sunday 12 pm - 5 pm.
